Thursday, June 11

8:45-9:15 – Registering and Welcoming coffee
9:15-9:30 – Welcoming addresses

10:30-11:00 : coffee break

11:00-12:30 – session 1 – Economics of Dispute Resolution
Paper 1: Fernando Gómez Pomar (Pompeu Fabra University), Formal Contracts without Courts.
Paper 2: Dominique Demougin (University of Liverpool), ADR versus Litigation: A cost paradox.

12:30-14:00 : lunch

14:00-15:30 – session 2 – Experimental Law & Economics
Paper 3: Marco Fabbri (RILE, University of Rotterdam), Social Influence on Third-party Punishment: an Experiment.
Paper 4: Stéphane Luchini (GREQAM, Aix-Marseille University), Truth telling under oath: An experimental investigation.

15:30-16:00 : coffee break

16:00-17:30 – session 3 – Competition Law
Paper 5: Kai Hüschelrath (Center for European Economic Research, University of Mannheim), The appeals process: an empirical assessment.
Paper 6: David Spector (CNRS & Paris School of Economics), Facilitating collusion by exchanging non-verifiable sales report.
Friday, June 12

8:30-9:00 – Welcoming coffee

9:00-10:30 – session 4 – Economics of Trials
Paper 7 : Barbara Luppi (University of Modena), Are sequential trials really better than unitary trials ?
Paper 8 : Jocelyn Martel (ESSEC Paris), Tax claims, absolute priority and the resolution of financial distress.

10:30-11:00 : coffee break

11:00-12:30 – session 5 – Tort Law and Liability
Paper 9 : Luigi Franzoni (University of Bologna), Liability law and uncertainty spreading.
Paper 10 : Julien Jacob (BETA, University of Lorraine), Multiple tortfeasors in high risk industries: how to share liability ?

12:30-14:00 – lunch

14:00-15:30 – session 6 – Judges and Judging
Paper 11 : Sue Mialon (Emory University, Atlanta), tbd.
Paper 12 : Romain Espinosa (CRED, Paris 2), Biased judges or selection bias ? What do we observe from Supreme Courts’ decisions ?

15:30-16:00 : coffee break

16:00-17:30 – session 7 – Intellectual Property Law
Paper 14 : Yann Ménière (CERNA, École des Mines), The market for standard essential patents.

17:30-17:45 – Concluding Words